Red Five Security Named DEMA Vendor of the Year

McLean, Va. (October 5, 2015) – Red Five Security has garnered the 2015 Vendor of the Year honor by the Domestic Estate Managers Association (DEMA). The award was handed out at the recent 2015 DEMA National Convention held September 18-20 in Orlando, Florida.

According to the association, the annual award is given to the DEMA Vendor who partners with estate managers to provide seamless white-glove service. They exemplify the standards set forth in the star rating systems used to vet all DEMA Vendor members. Honored vendors not only provide exceptional service to the principals, but also seek out ways to educate, encourage, and promote the local DEMA chapter. They join forces with DEMA National to help standardize professional business practices in the private service industry.

“It is an honor to be recognized for our outstanding service and dedication,” said R. Kris Coleman, President & CEO of Red Five Security. “It reinforces our everyday goal of exceeding the expectations of our clients and delivering a level of service that sets us apart from the industry.”
